Chairperson Jean Broadbent discussed that the Township of Ocean 150th anniversary is approaching on April 13, 2026. The Township was incorporated on April 13, 1876. Chairperson Broadbent discussed that the focus of the Special Events Committee over the next few years is going to be to develop ideas for events that Township could incorporate into a 150th anniversary celebration.

Township Committeeman Baulderstone, liaison for the Special Events Committee, discussed that there will be events for the upcoming 250th anniversary of the country, July 4, 2026, happening around the same time as well.

Chairperson Broadbent discussed that the Township of Ocean may also be able to join some of the county, or state, events that are run.

Chairperson Broadbent discussed that the Township should include the Historical Society with the event.

The Chairperson discussed different ideas, such as, a fair, a time capsule, or a combination of multiple different ideas.

The Special Events Committee was tasked with coming up with potential ideas, for events that the Township could sponsor, to be discussed at the next few Special Events Committee meetings.

Chairperson Broadbent provided some updates to the committee from the last meeting. Chairperson Broadbent discussed that Jam Fam Productions will be holding a festival in the Township of Ocean on June 22, 2024. The event will run from 11:00 am – 7:00 pm.

Chairperson Broadbent discussed that the Easter Egg Hunt is coming up on March 24, 2024 if anyone would like to volunteer their time for the event.
